

Practice Contact

Ivery D. Foreman
614.464.6322
idforeman@vorys.com

Counseling New, Emerging, and Mature Business Clients

Our firm recognizes the importance of the entrepreneurial spirit. We take great pride in our decades of experience in assisting our new, emerging, and mature business clients in achieving their entrepreneurial goals. Our attorneys represent our business clients through all phases of their development and organization. We have helped many of our private company clients in going public, and we have assisted some of our public company clients in going private.

We provide the following legal services, among others, to our new and existing business clients:

- Counseling clients on the appropriate structure and form of business organization, such as corporation, limited liability company, or partnership
- Assisting clients with acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, mergers, and strategic combinations
- Providing advice and services regarding public offerings, capital markets, and private financing, including venture capital
- Providing advice and services regarding executive compensation, stock options, and incentive compensation
- Advising clients on tax planning and tax strategies
- Assisting clients with all types of organizational agreements, including franchisor/franchisee agreements, closely held corporation agreements, shareholder agreements, joint venture agreements, limited liability company operating agreements, employment agreements, non-compete agreements, and other similar kinds of agreements

We understand that the needs and requirements of business clients will differ due to their age, size, structure, and other factors. Our attorneys are proficient at working with clients to efficiently provide excellent legal services that are specifically tailored to meet the client's particular needs.