Executive Compensation

Vorys lawyers often counsel our clients on all aspects of executive compensation. We regularly advise clients on matters such as nonqualified deferred compensation plans, stock options and other equity-based compensation programs, golden parachute arrangements, and employment contracts. We assist clients with the design, drafting, and administration of such arrangements, and work closely with attorneys in other practice areas, including our securities attorneys, to assist our clients in attaining their goals and objectives in an efficient and effective manner. Our attorneys work with all types of employers regarding their executive compensation issues, including public and private companies as well as tax-exempt entities.
