Government Entities

Our attorneys often assist municipalities and other public bodies that must go to court to protect their rights and interests. We have extensive experience in advising public bodies in the following types of matters:

- Civil rights issues
- Note and bond financing disputes
- Equal business opportunity issues in public sector procurement
- Public contracting issues
- Ethics and conflict of interest matters
- All forms of employment disputes
- Federal and state privacy law issues
- Public records/open meetings/Sunshine law/public access issues
- Construction disputes
- Arbitrations
- Administrative and other regulatory proceedings
