

Agency Familiarity

We have represented our clients in public contracting matters before virtually every federal agency and many state agencies, including the Department of Defense, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Department of State, the U.S. Agency for International Development, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Department of Transportation, the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Department of Commerce, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, including the National Institutes of Health, the Department of Justice, and the Bureau of Prisons, among many others. Our representative engagements include the following:

- Advising clients before the U.S. Army Corp of Engineers on various reconstruction projects throughout the South and in Afghanistan, Oman, and other countries in the Middle East
- Representing clients before the Export – Import Bank of the United States with respect to export credit insurance, loan guarantees, and structured finance arrangements
- Counseling clients before the U.S. Office of Management and Budget in connection with the use of electronic data interchange in support of federal procurement practices as implemented by various federal agencies
- Representing clients before the U.S. Department of Labor, U.S. General Services Administration, and various other agencies in connection with procurement of information technology software, services, and equipment