Mr. Campbell is a partner in the Vorys Cleveland office where he practices in the areas of employment litigation, labor, and employee benefits law. He represents clients in federal courts across the country, in state courts, and before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), and the U.S. Department of Labor Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA). His areas of expertise include negotiation of and compliance with collective bargaining agreements, defense of ERISA claims, enforcement of non-compete agreements, defense of class actions, and advising clients on employment issues, multi-employer benefit plans and issues relating to the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Career highlights include:

- Negotiation of a variety of collective bargaining agreements on behalf of public school districts, private universities, manufacturers, and various other organizations
- Defending class action lawsuits in federal and state courts
- Extensive trial experience in state and federal courts, including five jury trials in 2008 and 2009

Mr. Campbell is a member of the American Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, and the Cleveland Bar Association. In addition, Mr. Campbell has published several employment-related articles including a chapter in a book entitled "The Impact of 2008 Supreme Court Employment Law Cases."

Mr. Campbell has presented at seminars throughout the country on a variety of topics. The seminar forums include nationwide teleconferences, industry-wide conferences, and presentations before the Ohio State Bar Association.

Mr. Campbell received his J.D. summa cum laude from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law and his B.S.B.A. cum laude from The Ohio State University.
