Mr. O'Malley is the managing partner of the Vorys Cleveland office and a member of the litigation and health care practice groups. His practice focuses on complex business litigation. He represents financial service institutions, health care organizations and other public and private organizations and individuals in their business disputes. He has served as lead counsel in a variety of jurisdictions in cases arising under ERISA, the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), the National Bank Act, the Bank Holding Company Act, lender liability laws, state and federal antitrust laws and federal securities laws. He has also represented clients in arbitration before the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and regularly serves as lead counsel in defense of companies in class actions in federal and state courts. His class action experience includes matters arising under Ohio's mortgage, insurance, consumer and banking laws. Mr. O'Malley has also been lead counsel in class actions arising under RICO, ERISA and federal banking laws.

Career highlights include:

- Extensive class action defense practice for various national banks
- Representing claimant in a commercial arbitration and securing an eight-figure recovery
- Serving as outside trial counsel for an academic medical institution in contracting, medical staff, regulatory and other health care related issues
- Securing victory for an antitrust defendant in a dealer termination case before United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio and United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit
- Successfully defending, in trial, a closely held corporation in fraudulent conveyance litigation

Mr. O'Malley is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association and the Cleveland Bar Association.
