Mr. Lusenhop is a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the litigation and health care groups. His practice focuses on health care litigation, commercial disputes, product liability, toxic tort defense, and personal injury claims. He has significant experience in the areas of behavioral health, licensure and regulatory challenges affecting health care providers and long-term care entities, and health care contracting and billing controversies. Mr. Lusenhop also has significant experience in personal injury matters and represents both plaintiffs and defendants in such cases.

His notable experience includes:

- Defending health care providers in high profile licensure and compliance controversies
- Advocating for the rights of behavioral health care providers and patients to provide and to receive needed services
- Prosecuting and defending the claims of Ohio businesses and individuals in courts throughout Ohio and across the nation

Mr. Lusenhop received his J.D. with honors from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law and his B.S. cum laude from Miami University.

Before joining Vorys, Mr. Lusenhop spent six years as a private business owner and operator in Cincinnati, Dayton, and Northern Kentucky.
