Krummen Selected as Member of OSBA Leadership Academy

January 12, 2012

Robert J. Krummen, an associate in the firm's Columbus office and a member of the litigation group, was named to the Ohio State Bar Association's Leadership Academy Class of 2012. According to the Association's website, the Academy was designed to identify future leaders in the legal community and provide them with support and training.

Mr. Krummen has counseled and represented corporations, government entities, nonprofit organizations and institutions of higher education in state and federal court in litigation, government relations and regulatory matters. He is experienced in appellate, constitutional, commercial, environmental, oil and gas, tort and securities litigation. Mr. Krummen also has extensive experience with amicus practice in the Ohio Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Krummen received his J.D. from Harvard Law School and his B.A. from The Ohio State University. He also clerked for the Honorable R. Guy Cole, Jr., of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.
