

History

Our firm was founded by Arthur I. Vorys, Lowry F. Sater, Augustus T. Seymour, and Edward L. Pease in the spring of 1909, in Columbus, Ohio. Since that time, we have grown from a four-person office to a firm of more than 350 lawyers in seven different cities. Our firm also has developed and cultivated deep-seated traditions of public service and client service. Those traditions continue to guide us today, and remain as important to the firm as our name – which has remained unchanged since our firm's creation.
