

Business Income and Franchise Tax

We routinely counsel our business clients on various income and franchise tax compliance and planning issues related to activities in Ohio and in other states. Our services range from sophisticated planning in connection with large corporate restructurings and transactions to individual state nexus analysis and voluntary disclosure activities. In addition, our lawyers have significant experience in skillfully representing our clients with respect to income and franchise tax issues during audits, or in litigation.

ATTORNEYS

- Raymond D. Anderson
- David A. Froling
- Blake A. Snider