LITIGATION

Our firm has a rich heritage of producing superior trial lawyers who obtain excellent results for our clients. Many of our litigators have become fellows of the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers, and many of our trial lawyers are former clerks for federal or state court judges.

The litigation group is the largest group in our firm, and our litigation practice spans the nation. We represent clients in every imaginable kind of dispute, whether it involves allegations of civil or criminal liability, whether it concerns business issues, personal injuries, claimed violation of statutes, or professional malpractice, or whether it is to be resolved in a trial court, on appeal, or through arbitration, mediation, or some other form of alternative dispute resolution.
