TRUSTS, ESTATES, AND WEALTH TRANSFER

Our lawyers provide counsel to individuals, families and fiduciaries on all aspects of the transfer and preservation of wealth. We plan and prepare for the future transfer of wealth, we carry out and administer our clients' intentions as set forth in their written estate plans, and we represent our clients in litigation to preserve and protect their interests.

Our clients include high net worth individuals, young families just beginning to plan for the future, individual and corporate fiduciaries, and all types of charitable entities and foundations. Each client's situation is unique, and each client has different goals and objectives. Our lawyers are highly specialized and have the knowledge and experience necessary to identify and fulfill the individual needs of each client.

Vorys is an advisor member of the Family Office Exchange, an authority on matters related to legacy wealth management.
