Jason is a partner in the Cincinnati office of Vorys where he practices corporate and business law, representing companies in a broad range of sizes and industries. He has worked with start-ups, large publicly traded companies and those in-between, and has considerable experience in corporate and business law, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, banking and securities.

Jason's work with his clients spans from entity selection and formation to exit strategies and acquisitions. He regularly advises clients on purchases and sales of businesses, equity investments and offerings, strategic alternatives and general contract and business matters. He advises public company clients on their disclosure and reporting under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and on corporate governance matters, and frequently works with financial institutions on regulatory compliance, securities matters, capital raising and acquisitions.

His recent highlights include:

- Representing a New York based private equity fund in numerous multi-million dollar portfolio company acquisitions across the country
- Representing a Swiss company in its multi-million dollar acquisition of a U.S. company
- Representing R.G. Barry Corporation in its over $200 million sale to Mill Road Capital
- Representing a savings and loan holding company in its acquisition for approximately $50 million in cash and stock
- Representing a bank holding company in its acquisition for over $40 million in cash and stock
- Representing a mutual savings association in multiple merger acquisitions
- Advising various private equity investors and individuals in differing forms of investments, acquisitions and dispositions
- Representing small and privately-owned businesses in transactions of varying size
- Representing a bondholder group in a $22 million asset purchase transaction
- Representing a marine engine manufacturer in a $30 million asset sale transaction
- Counseling both early-stage and established companies in securities offerings and private equity investments
- Serving as underwriter's counsel in multiple financial institution mutual to stock conversions and the related initial public offerings
- Advising various financial institutions and their holding companies in multimillion dollar acquisition transactions
- Representing a savings and loan holding company in a multi-million dollar Regulation D private offering
