Lauren is an associate in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of probate and tax group. Her practice focuses on federal taxation.

Immediately prior to joining Vorys, Lauren spent two years serving as legal counsel and vice president of strategic development at a small health care technology company, with an emphasis on transactional matters. Prior to her time in this role, she worked as a Vorys associate in the commercial and real estate group. Lauren has experience working with clients across several industries—including technology, retail, automotive, oil and gas, and financial services—assisting in the structure, negotiation, and documentation of commercial transactions. She has additional experience working within the Bankruptcy and Creditors' Rights subgroup at Vorys, with success in prosecuting and defending fraudulent and other voidable transactions.

Lauren is a member of the Columbus and Ohio State Bar Associations. She received her J.D. from the Vanderbilt University Law School, where she was a member of the Order of the Coif. She also served as the articles editor of the Vanderbilt Law Review and the executive problem editor of the Vanderbilt Moot Court Board. She received her B.A. magna cum laude from The Ohio State University, where she was Phi Beta Kappa.
