Kara is an associate in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the litigation practice group. Her practice focuses on land use and eminent domain litigation, antitrust advising and litigation, and general complex commercial and business litigation. She has significant experience counseling clients related to potential litigation, including litigation involving complex business transactions across varying market channels, real property, zoning, governmental appropriations, and complex contract matters. She regularly practices in federal and state courts, and has achieved favorable results for her clients in both arenas.

As part of her antitrust practice, Kara works with manufacturers and retailers on issues relating to Minimum Advertised Pricing policies and Resale Price Maintenance. She advises clients regarding vertical pricing issues and how business clients can structure their relationships with distributors and retailers to avoid violations of the Sherman, Clayton, and Robinson Patman Act.

Her notable experience includes:

- Successfully defending and obtaining summary judgment on copyright infringement claims and obtaining an attorneys fees award resulting from same
- Obtaining jury verdicts and settlements on behalf of landowners in eminent domain litigation
- Assisting in the preparation of multiple jury trials in real property and complex business litigation matters
- Negotiating successful resolutions of pre- and post-lawsuit matters on behalf of clients ranging from individuals to national companies
- Advising national retail clients on drafting and implementing Minimum Advertised Pricing policies and Resale Price Maintenance policies
- Serving as a judicial extern for the Honorable Michael H. Watson in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio
- Serving as a judicial extern for the Honorable Kimberly Cocroft in the Franklin County Court of Common Pleas

Kara is a member of the Ohio Women's Bar Association.

Kara received her J.D. magna cum laude from The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, where she was a managing editor of the Ohio State Law Journal. She received her B.A. cum laude with honors and research distinction from The Ohio State University.
