Dan is an associate in the Vorys Cincinnati office and a member of the Vorys eControl group.

As part of the Vorys eControl team, Dan counsels businesses on issues related to e-commerce, online brand protection, and product diversion. Dan also has significant experience litigating against unauthorized sellers in actions involving trademark infringement, unfair competition, counterfeiting, and false advertisement. Through litigation, Dan has been able to secure favorable outcomes in numerous actions involving unauthorized sales on the Internet.

His notable experience includes:

- Obtaining a judgment and award of more than $8 million in a lawsuit involving unauthorized sales on Amazon.
- Obtaining and enforcing court orders that caused unauthorized sellers' websites and online storefronts to be permanently shut down.
- Defeating dispositive motions in actions involving unauthorized sales of diverted products.
- Defeating an appeal of a favorable judgment in an internet defamation matter.

Prior to joining Vorys, Dan worked in commercial litigation and civil rights litigation. Dan also clerked for two years as a staff attorney at the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and for one year as a law clerk for the Honorable William P. Lynch in the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico.

Dan received his J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School, where he was a notes editor for the Vanderbilt Law Review. He received his B.A. summa cum laude from the University of Michigan.
