Vorys represents a wide variety of conventional lenders, mezzanine and non-bank lenders, borrowers and other obligors, insurance companies, investment vehicles, fiduciaries, trade creditors and others in a broad range of restructuring, reorganization and workout matters. We leverage our firm's deeply rooted culture of cross-collaboration and innovation to provide comprehensive counsel and craft bespoke strategies and solutions responsive to any circumstance. This multidisciplinary approach also helps our clients unlock hidden value and preserve tactical flexibility in service of their strategic objectives – whether those objectives are best met at the negotiating table or in a courtroom.

We are privileged to serve our local, regional and national clients in navigating a diverse array of transactions and proceedings, including:

- Debt restructurings and associated equity and capital-raise transactions
- Forbearance agreements and pre-insolvency exit transactions
- Loan sales and purchases
- State and federal receiverships
- Assignments for the benefit of creditors, cooperative liquidations
- Debtor-in-possession financing
- Section 363 and Article 9 asset sales and purchases
