Our multidisciplinary team has served as lead and national litigation counsel in state, federal and appellate courts across 49 states, the District of Columbia and U.S. island territories.

Who We Represent

We advise some of the nation's largest public corporations, as well as private, middle-market and startup companies spanning a range of industries. Our team has particularly deep experience in the retail and consumer products, manufacturing, financial services, logistics and transportation, construction, insurance, healthcare, and oil and gas sectors, among others.

Our clients include:

- Nearly one-third of the National Retail Federation's Top 100 list, including over half of the top 25 retailers
- More than 600 middle-market and global consumer brands
- 150 financial institutions
- Major automotive manufacturers and suppliers
- Major technology and software companies

Our Approach

We pride ourselves on building decades-long relationships with our clients by providing pragmatic, strategic counsel and responsive, customized service at the highest levels. Our litigators work across offices and practices to help clients assess the potential risk and exposure facing their industries and companies. When disputes arise, we guide clients in making informed decisions about whether to litigate or settle cases.

In each case, we assess the potential for a cost-effective settlement, with an eye toward advancing our clients' goals in the litigation. We also evaluate opportunities to craft "win-win" solutions to contain reputational damage and control costs by employing a range of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) methods. When clients decide to fight or defend claims in court, we mobilize our coast-to-coast team of trial and appellate lawyers to represent clients in all types of litigation and appellate proceedings.

Trial and Appellate Counsel

Vorys boasts a diverse bench of attorneys with decades of experience trying cases in court. Our ranks include fellows of the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers, a former Supreme Court of Ohio justice, and former appellate, federal and state court law clerks. Several of our lawyers also have gone on to serve with distinction as judges on federal and state appellate courts.

Our appellate lawyers represent clients in matters beginning at trial and also regularly parachute in to obtain favorable results on appeal. We have represented clients in federal courts of appeals across the country, including the U.S. Supreme Court, and often file amicus curiae briefs for clients with important stakes in the outcome of appeals with which they are not involved.

With long-standing roots in Ohio, our appellate lawyers have been appointed by the Supreme Court of Ohio to serve on the Board of Bar Examiners, the Board of Commissioners on Character & Fitness and the Board of Commissioners on Grievances & Discipline.

Our class action lawyers advise on the appropriate forum to remove state court class actions to federal court by employing the Class Action Fairness Act (CAFA) and other mechanisms. With extensive experience serving as national counsel in multidistrict litigation (MDL), we are adept at coordinating cases to avoid duplication and reduce defense costs.

Vorys' litigation group represents clients in the full spectrum of civil and criminal litigation and has particularly extensive experience handling cases involving:

- Antitrust
- Appellate matters
- Breach of contract
- Commercial litigation
- Employment matters
- False Claims Act
- Financial services litigation
- Government investigations, including qui tam and white collar cases
