Dan is a partner in the Vorys Columbus office, a member of the litigation group, and is co-chair of the firm's appellate practice subgroup and of the firm's agriculture industry subgroup. He is experienced in appellate, constitutional, eminent domain, real property, commercial, and oil and gas litigation. Dan also serves on the national counsel team for a Fortune 200 company in benzene and chemical litigation. He has helped Fortune 500 companies, public universities, private hospitals, small businesses, and family farms successfully resolve disputes through all stages of litigation. Dan also serves as an adjunct professor at Capital Law School, where he coaches a moot court team.

His notable experience includes:

- Successfully presenting oral argument in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals on behalf of a bankruptcy trustee and defending against a petition of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States
- Successfully presenting oral argument in Ohio appellate courts
- Drafting dozens of party, amicus, and jurisdictional briefs in Federal and Ohio appellate courts, including both the United States and Ohio Supreme Courts
- Litigating original actions and certified questions of state law in the Supreme Court of Ohio
- Protecting clients' property rights and maximizing compensation in eminent domain actions against the State of Ohio and property disputes arising from rails-to-trails projects
- Obtaining on behalf of a family farm a federal court order invalidating Toledo's Lake Erie Bill of Rights as unconstitutional on its face
- Obtaining a writ of mandamus against the Director of the Ohio Department of Transportation to vindicate a Wendy's franchise's constitutional right to just compensation
- Vindicating farmers' First Amendment rights by pursuing Section 1983 First Amendment retaliation claim against the Director of an Ohio state agency
- Obtaining for a farmer a unanimous stay ruling from Supreme Court stopping a trial court judge from holding proceedings in violation of Ohio's Eminent Domain statute
- Obtaining significant compensation from the State of Ohio for numerous farmer clients related to the State's flooding of the client's properties
- Obtaining writ of prohibition from Supreme Court of Ohio preventing the Ohio Oil and Gas Commission from exercising jurisdiction over the issuance of oil and gas permits
- Obtaining permanent injunction at trial on behalf of a city contractor regarding the award of a city contract
