Pete is an associate in the Vorys Washington, D.C. office and a member of the litigation group. Pete's practice focuses on defending clients in matters involving commercial litigation, professional liability litigation and consumer protection litigation. Pete also maintains a broad-based litigation practice involving labor and employment defense, copyright and trademark defense, personal injury defense and real property tax litigation. Pete has experience representing public and private entities, banks, credit card companies, finance companies, insurance companies and credit unions, as well as individual attorneys, officers, directors and fiduciaries.

Career highlights include:

- Obtained a unanimous decision, from the Maryland Court of Appeals, on behalf of a Maryland-based credit union in a matter involving a Maryland court's jurisdiction over property outside the State of Maryland.
- Obtained Summary Judgment, prior to class certification, on behalf of a property management company in a putative class action for alleged violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.
- Obtained Judgment as a Matter of Law after two days of trial, on behalf of a top 10 electrical contractor in the United States, in a subrogation action involving claims for breach of contract and negligence resulting in property damage.
- Obtained a dismissal, on behalf of a multinational payment card services company, of claims involving claims for violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, Consumer Financial Protection Act, and regulatory consent orders.
- Representation of law firms and attorneys in defense of claims of legal malpractice.
- Representation of companies in various breach of contract and negligence claims.
