

Events

Private Incentives Practitioners Roundtable – Outsiders' Perspectives on Best and Worst Practices for Public Economic Development Practitioners

Related Attorneys

Scott J. Ziance

9.29.2020

Related Services

Real Estate

Tax and Economic Development
Incentives

Taxation

Scott Ziance, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and leader of the firm's economic development incentives practice, will participate in a private incentives practitioners roundtable on September 29, 2020. The roundtable, which is a part of the Ohio Economic Development Association (OEDA) 2020 Virtual Summit, will feature discussion concerning what the panelists perceive based on actual transactions and regular interaction with their clients to be best and worst practices for public economic development practitioners.

To learn more, visit the OEDA website.