Julie Brown, Vorys' Litigation Technology Executive Manager, will moderate two sessions at Executive Counsel Institute's upcoming E-Discovery for the Corporate Market conference, "The Exchange" in Chicago on June 16-17.

"The Exchange" is a series of ten in-depth roundtable discussions, facilitated by moderators who are considered leaders in the field of e-discovery. The sessions are designed specifically for in-house counsel to provide practical solutions regarding major e-discovery challenges facing organizations today.

Ms. Brown's sessions are entitled, "The Importance of Project and Process Management Skills" and "Data Assessment from Beginning to End."
