EVENT | 3.16.2023

Carey Jordan, partner in the Vorys Houston office and chair of the intellectual property group, and Valerie Moore, patent agent in both the Vorys Houston and Orange County offices, will join a panel titled, "Effective Use of Patent Agents for In-House and Outside Counsel" on March 16, 2023. The panelists will discuss the changing role of patent agents over the past decade. This session will also address the benefits of having a patent agent program including how patent agents can support legal/business work outside of preparation and prosecution. Additionally, panelists will discuss unique benefits to staffing with patent agents, including contributing to your organization's diversity.
