

Bresnahan Named a Top Lawyer by The Washingtonian

Related Services

Litigation

NEWS | 12.7.2009

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is proud to announce that Pamela A. Bresnahan, a partner in the Washington, D.C. office, has been named to The Washingtonian's list of leading lawyers in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. She is recognized as one of the area's pre-eminent civil-defense attorneys in the "You Got Served" category.

Comprised of attorneys from 29 legal specialties, The Washingtonian's Top Lawyers list represents the top one percent of the area's 80,000 attorneys. The list is compiled by the editors of The Washingtonian and is based primarily on peer recommendation and feedback.

Ms. Bresnahan is the Chair of the litigation practice group at Vorys' Washington office. She serves as trial and appellate counsel in business and commercial litigation matters with an emphasis on professional liability defense and coverage litigation. She represents lawyers, financial institutions, broker/dealers, financial professionals, directors and officers, insurers and other professionals. Ms. Bresnahan serves as coverage and litigation counsel for insurers issuing errors and omissions policies. She represents businesses and individuals in real estate, banking and other corporate litigation. She advises law firms and lawyers on management issues and discipline matters.

Ms. Bresnahan was named one of the 50 Most Influential Women Lawyers in America in 2007 by The National Law Journal. She is a member of The American College of Trial Lawyers, and currently serves on the Nominating Committee and the Committee on Rules and Calendars of the ABA House of Delegates. Ms. Bresnahan is a former member of the D.C. Circuit Committee on Admissions and Discipline and the former D.C. Circuit representative for the ABA Standing Committee on Federal Judiciary.