Jolie Havens, a partner in the Columbus office and the chair of the firm's health care group, was a guest on WVXU's Cincinnati Edition. The topic of the show was the impact that the Affordable Care Act (ACA) will have on businesses in 2015 and how businesses should be preparing to ensure compliance with the law. According to WVXU, both small and large businesses face challenges in meeting the measuring, monitoring and reporting requirements of the ACA.
