

Team Coached by Vorys Attorney Succeeds at William E. McGee National Civil Rights Moot Court Competition

NEWS | 3.2.2017

The South Texas College of Law Houston Moot Court Team recently competed and placed third in the William E. McGee National Civil Rights Moot Court Competition. The team had successfully argued a problem regarding trademarks, the Lanham Act, and the First Amendment, based on a case currently before the U.S. Supreme Court. The team is coached by Katrisha Shirley, an associate in the Vorys Houston office.
