

Vorys Litigators Achieve Victory in Driving Records Fee Case

Related Attorneys

Kenneth J. Rubin

Related Services

Litigation

NEWS | 6.10.2010

Vorys litigators Lisa Pierce Reisz and Kenneth J. Rubin achieved a victory on behalf of the Ohio Insurance Institute, the Ohio Trucking Association and the Ohio Coalition for Open Government on June 8, 2010, when Judge Richard Frye ruled in favor of the Plaintiffs' constitutional challenge to the driver's abstract fee increase by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

To read more about the decision, please click here to be re-directed to the Tuesday, June 8, 2010 edition of The Hannah Report and jump to the second story, "Driving-Records Fee Increase Unconstitutional, County Judge Says."