

Vorys Recognized in the Human Rights Campaign's Corporate Equality Index for Sixth Straight Year

NEWS | 12.9.2013

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP has been recognized as one of the top gay-friendly workplaces in central Ohio for the sixth year in a row by the Human Rights Campaign (HRC). The firm received an equality score of 80 for having non-discrimination policies and offering benefits to non-married partners, among other criteria. Only five other central Ohio businesses received scores higher than Vorys. In addition, the firm was one of only five Ohio-based law firms listed in the rankings.

Each fall, HRC releases the Corporate Equality Index report (CEI). The CEI provides an in-depth analysis and rating of U.S. employers and their policies and practices pertinent to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender employees. The CEI rates companies on 40 specific policies and practices.
